Description:

In book two of the House of Robots series, its bot brains versus bot brawn in an all-out war!

My son LOVES the book House of Robots, so we bought book 2 and 3. He doesn't like this story as much, unfortunately. This plot focuses a lot more on Maddie instead of on Sammy, which is probably why my little guy wasn't a fan. However, I really like the messages this story presents. It deals with typical elementary school problems such as social pressure, jealousy, and dealing with name calling. The book helped us have some conversations about how to handle these situations in real life when there's no E robot to lean upon.
